The Challenge

Ride with GPS wanted an in-person gathering to reconnect a distributed team and reinforce shared culture through riding, conversation, and time outdoors.

The Vernonia Springs Solution

Vernonia Springs supported a retreat format that combined group rides, shared meals, and informal meeting time in a private outdoor setting. The forest environment created space for both structured activities and relaxed connection.

The Experience

- Group rides through scenic forest routes
- Small-group discussions and informal collaboration
- Shared meals that reinforced team connection
- Evening gatherings that created relaxed bonding time

Results & Impact

- Stronger cross-team relationships
- Renewed team energy and alignment
- Reinforced company culture
- Positive feedback regarding retreat format and setting

Testimonial

“we're so grateful to you and Julie for sharing your incredible property with us. You're both excellent hosts and so easy to work with. We felt very well fed and cared for the whole time. Everyone agreed it was our best campout yet.”
